

2006 Executive Gang Summit
November 1st and 2nd
Radisson Fort McDowell Resort & Casino, Scottsdale
Summit Registration Fee (lunch included on 11/1/06) – $70.00
FREE TO FIRST 150 REGISTRANTS!!

The Arizona Department of Public Safety is proud to host, in conjunction with the Rocky Mountain Information Network (RMIN), the United States Attorney's Office, the Arizona Regional Community Policing Institute and the Arizona Criminal Justice Commission, our

Executive Gang Summit

This Summit endeavors to bring together leaders in law enforcement, prosecution, corrections and probation to discuss current trends and establish partnerships to enhance gang enforcement, prevention and education.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- State of the State - Gang Trends in Arizona
- Street Gangs and How They Affect Our Communities
- Gang Threat Assessments
- Gang Violence Statistics
- Gang Enforcement Funding
- Prosecution Issues and Challenges
- Gang Immigration from Mexico and California
- Career Criminal Training in Our Correctional Institutions
- Coordinating Gang Control Strategies

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Federal, State and Local Law Enforcement Executives
- City, County, State and Federal Prosecutorial Executives
- Adult and Juvenile Corrections and Probation Executives

A limited number of hotel rooms have been reserved for traveling executives and will be paid for by GIITEM on a first-come, first-serve basis. Additional rooms will be offered by the Radisson at the special Summit rate of $90.00 per night. Golf packages are available upon request.

For Summit registration and hotel information, call GIITEM at (602) 223-2329. Registration must be completed by Monday, October 2, 2006.

The Gang Summit is presented in partnership with the Project Safe Neighborhoods Initiative

Visit www.azcjc.gov for Executive Gang Summit updates

